BIG LOSS IN FIRE AT CHANDLER SATURDAY

CHANDLER, March 7-What proved to be one of the worst fires in the city of Chandler was that which destroyed the Freeman service station and hall on Saturday evening. The fire was dis-covered about 19:50 Saturday evening by Town Marshal C. L. Malone and he immediately gave the alarm and the local fire apparatus was rushed to the scene. By the time the apparatus arrived, the fire was beyond control and eff were directed to the saving of property across the alley from the fire. Fire fighters valiantly fought, and due to the fact that there was no wind, the fire was kept to the Freeman.

uilding. Apparatus was dispatched from Mess to assist in the fighting of the fire, but when it arrived, after having made a record breaking run of 15 minutes from pair work. Mr. Gilliland has been at Mesa, the fire was under control. At the time the fire was discovered, the owner, M. P. Freeman, was driving to Casa Grande to attend the installation the Spain garage for several years; he also has taken advantage of the night of the Knights of Pythias lodge there, with a number of the other local members, and when he reached Casa Grande the telephone operator there was wait-ing to give him the bad news. Imme-Missouri Minister May Come The Baptist people of Tempe have called Rev. Mr. Lands of Hamilton. diately upon receiving the news a record breaking run was made from Casa Grande and Mr. Freeman made the return trip in 1 hour and 30 minutes over the poor roads. Insurance on the building was covered to the amount of $15,000, while the stock and fixtures were insured for $10,000. Among the local lodges which met in the hall are the Knights of Pythias, who had their equipment and paraphernalla insured for $500, and the Odd Fellows lost about $300 in equipment, none of which was covered by insurance. The local Episcopal church lost their organ. All equipment and cars stored in the garage, the property of Messys. Chamberlin, J. Kligore, Felix, Huggett, Serrano Brothers, the Union Stage company, and a number of others were destroyed by the fire, some having insurance and some not. The citizens of Chandler and surrounding country extend their sympathy to Mr. Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 sharp all members and officers of the Pythian Sisters are requested to meet at the hall. It is especially urgent that all members of the team be there as this is a special practice meeting for initiation at the next regular meeting.

If you want to see the cute little geisha girls of Japan before they are reformed out of existence, you'd better take, the next boat for the land of the chrysanthemum. The blue law infection has been taken across the Pacific by some unknown germ carrier, and Japan is developing its own special breed of joy-killer, as censorious as our own Brother Crafts, although somewhat warmer in complexion.

A serious outbreak of the plague is reported from Tokio, where the blue law movement is being fostered by the committee on etiquette of the Alliance for Improving Living Conditions. Their activities were stimulated by the recent world Sunday school convention in Tokio, whereat were many American delegates, who waved little American flags and criticized with great freedom such features of Japanese life as did such features of Japanese life as not meet their approval.

The feminine delegates in particular were carnest in their disapproval of geisha girls, these human butterflies who are rigorously trained from the age of 7 in the arts of entertaining and fascinating man in his hours of east with song, with poesy, with dance and posture, with the strumming of lutes, with interludes of delicate comedy, and with interludes of delicate comedy, and with every weapon in the armory of coquetry that lovely woman has invented since Adam lost his rib.

The Sunday school delegates—that is, those of the fair *ex—would not hear a word in defense of the system. They had seen something of what those minxes could do; they had obverved the stimulating effect of their blan ilshments on perfectly staid masculine delegates from Wichita, Kan., or Montpelier, Vt., and they declared that the geisha must go.—New York Sun.
